

Mixed Case: 12 Wonderful Wines from Around the Globe

By Wanda Mann

Which 12 different bottles of wine would you choose to create your own mixed case? I would definitely fill mine with a mix of sparkling, white, red and rosé; a few serious wines and some everyday easy-going sips. If you're looking for inspiration to create your own delicious dozen, keep reading for tasting notes on twelve winning wines that I recently sampled from California, Oregon, Argentina, Italy, France, and Portugal. Cheers!

Pedroncelli Dry Rosé of Zinfandel 2016

California (Sonoma, Dry Creek Valley), $12

The lighter side of Zinfandel is on delicious display in this quite dry rosé, with an appealing hint of sweetness and balanced citrus, red berry, and orange zest flavors.

<http://www.blackdresstraveler.com/2017/08/mixed-case-12-wines.html>