

What to Drink Now: Events and Destinations for the Wine Lover

By Hayley Hamilton Cogill

Put these events on your 2018 schedule. It's a new year, time for an adventure. But where should you go? Here are a few wine-loving ideas guaranteed to please.

100+-year-old Zinfandel vines in Sonoma

Sonoma also needs your support, as Santa Rosa and various parts of the extensive County incurred damage in the fires. Consider visiting the region, putting events like the exclusive Signature Sonoma Valley Weekend, with one-on-one winemaker experiences and tasting events, or the laid-back, Zinfandel filled Passport to Dry Creek on your travel calendar. These events bringing the community together in celebration will happen throughout the year in Sonoma County.

<https://www.dmagazine.com/food-drink/2018/01/what-to-drink-now-events-and-destinations-for-the-wine-l-over/>